OAHI Volunteers

"OAHI is run by volunteers, people who have the time and inclination to contribute to the betterment of the home inspection profession. I know that my volunteerism has helped me, other inspectors and the association, and I have made some good friends along the way. Being involved allows you to improve the profession, right wrongs and make a difference." Andrew Dixon, RHI, vice-president and chair of the OAHI Education Conference.

About the Ontario Association of Home Inspectors

Through education and advocacy the Ontario Association of Home Inspectors cultivates a thriving home inspection industry based on the highest standards of professional development and ethical standards. In doing so, OAHI cultivates the 'gold standard' for home inspectors among consumers and the government. OAHI is the only provincially recognized body of home inspectors by The Ontario Association of Home Inspectors Act, 1994. OAHI is a not-for-profit association.
